

CALL FOR PAPERS

13th International Workshop on Discrete Event Systems that will be held in Wyndham Grand Hotel, Xi'an, China on May 30 - June 1, 2016.

Special Issue on “Discrete Event Approaches in Logistics and Transportation”

Organizers

Maria Pia Fanti, Polytechnic of Bari, Italy, mariapia.fanti@poliba.it

Walter Ukovich, University of Trieste, Italy, ukovich@units.it

MengChu Zhou, New Jersey Institute of Technology, NJ, USA, mengchu.zhou@njit.edu

The specific objectives of the modern logistics challenges are ‘smart, green and integrated services’ to achieve planning, scheduling and transport systems that are resource-efficient, climate- and environmentally-friendly, safe and seamless for the benefit of all citizens, the economy and society.

The goal of this special issue is to provide a forum of interaction between researchers and practitioners in the area of discrete event system with applications in logistic and transportation fields. It aims to promote and facilitate the development of automation and ICT applications in different logistic fields.

Topics to be covered include, but are not limited to:

- Performance evaluation.
- Planning, scheduling and coordination problems.
- Intelligent transportation and distribution systems: theory and application.
- Management information systems in logistics.
- Automatic and intelligent control applications in logistics systems at the factory, warehouse, transportation or supply chain levels.

Application domains may include (but are not limited to) the following:

- Intra-factory logistics and material handling for manufacturing and production systems
- Supply Chains
- Warehouses, distribution centres, and transport terminals
- Freight transportation systems (seaports, railroads, trucking systems, package express etc.)
- Smart logistics for smart cities
