University of Cagliari, Italy

Requirements for the title of
DOCTOR EUROPAEUS

The title of Doctor Europaeus consists in a certificate of European Doctorate that supplements the PhD degree.

The title of Doctor Europaeus is awarded by the University of Cagliari upon fulfilment of the following four conditions:

1. a positive evaluation on the thesis by at least two referees of European universities (from two different countries and non-Italian);
2. at least one member of the defence committee belongs to a European university (non-Italian);
3. the thesis is defended (at least partially) in a foreign language (non-Italian);
4. part of the work for the thesis has been carried out in a European university (non-Italian) during a stay of least 3 months.

The PhD School / Program will be in charge of collecting the documentation and of certifying that the above mentioned four conditions are satisfied.
